Moments

Just the other day I sat down with my Bible, paper one that is, and I read through some of the highlighted/underlined verses from 1 Corinthians. As I read the verses slowly, I recalled again, the moments that God had spoken to me through those words.

We call them moments of revelation. Moments, when it seems God points out something specific he wants to remind us of. Moments, opportunities for change, a release of new encouragement, a small rebuke, power to go on.

God hasn't ceased speaking, but often we cease to listen. We busy ourselves, justify our salary or even our existence and move at a pace that destroys the panorama of life we are meant to enjoy.

Can I encourage you today, take out your Bible and let God speak to you again about things he may well have highlighted in the past and let those reminders become life afresh. Don't rush through life and miss it's pleasantness.

Annual Reporting

Now that the 2015-16 financial year is concluded, please email a summary of your church's annual financial statement to the National Office.

The statement should show starting balance, income (general and designated) and expenses (weekly commitment, utilities, missions, youth & children, repairs & maintenance, visiting ministry, other) and closing balance.

Please forward a copy of your church's statement to admin@apostolic.org.au
