We Get To Do This!

Flying home from the Gold Coast, having just attended our National Apostolic Conference, I couldn't help reflecting on how great it was to look across our movement and see so many faces that I have served together in ministry with over many years. So many still loving Jesus and passionate about His work on the earth.

Then to see so many more, younger faces ready to see lives changed and communities transformed, as they embark on the journey God has for them. What a privilege it is to serve Jesus!

We are all surrounded with so many people that wake up every morning doing the same thing, work, home, work repeat, with no real purpose other than survival.

The fact that we have been called and chosen to see lives transformed by the power of the gospel message, has got to be one of the most exciting purposes on the earth today.

People all around us are looking for a reason for existence, struggling with identity, changing jobs and partners for some kind of satisfaction. We, however, get to wake up every day and know our reason for living, our identity and our purpose - what we are here for.

- We get to have a daily personal relationship with Jesus.
- We get to partner with him in kingdom purpose.
- We get to help people experience heaven on earth.
- We get to see lives transformed from death to life.
- We get to serve Jesus by serving humanity.
- We get to experience the Holy Spirit in us and through us.

- We get to be 'The Church' in the world.
- We get to be carriers of the Good News.
- We get to do all this because we are called and chosen for such a time as this.

Romans 1:5 - Through Christ, God has given us the privilege and authority as apostles to tell Gentiles everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and obey him, bringing glory to his name.

As the world gets darker, the church shines brighter and continues to forge forward with momentum. Never forget we are ordinary people called to do extraordinary things in the power and authority of Jesus.

Remind yourself daily, it's a privilege to serve Jesus and tell yourself regularly, "I Get to Do This".
